

Long-Term Care Insurance

Solving problems and uncovering opportunities in LTCi

Faegre Drinker's long-term care insurance team is among the largest and most respected in the nation. Drawing on the intellectual capital of more than 30 LTCi attorneys, we assist clients at all stages of the product life cycle. Successfully navigating the changing long-term care regulatory and legal landscape demands this kind of experience. It also requires a commitment to excellence, innovation and responsiveness — attributes on which we place the highest premium and that further distinguish us from others practicing in this space.

Our services

Our attorneys counsel insurers, reinsurers, TPAs and other LTCi community members with all of the following:

Claims and complaint handling
